

Hi Everyone,

Well that's my first week over as Acting Head Teacher and what a week it has been!! As always the children, staff and parents have been so supportive and very understanding when I have maybe got a couple of things wrong. As I say to the pupils - mistakes are good as we can learn from them!

As I have started my new role, I am delighted to congratulate Miss Roddick on becoming Acting Depute Head Teacher and Miss Welsh on becoming Acting Principal Teacher. I am sure you will join me in wishing them well.

On Wednesday we held Meet the Teacher and I hope as parents, you found this a reassuring and positive experience. A big thank you to our house captains and vice captains for welcoming parents into the school.

On Monday 11th September our Parent Council are holding their AGM. The office will send out the link for the meeting and everyone is welcome.

On Wednesday 13th September our PTA will meet in the school staffroom at 6pm. Again all are welcome.

Reminders

- Please remember that dogs are prohibited in the playground at any time.
- Lost property - we have accumulated a large amount of lost property in the last three weeks. This will be kept in the front entrance so please feel free to pop in at any time and have a rummage. Many of these items are unnamed so I ask that you ensure that your child's name is on all clothing and personal belongings.

Many thanks for your continuing support and I wish you all a very happy weekend.
