

Dear Families,

I wanted to take a minute to introduce myself as I'm mindful that not all families do the school pick-up and drop off. It's hard to believe it's only two weeks since I took up post. I've been made to feel so welcome by the children, staff and families and I'm very excited about joining the journey of Lenzie Meadow! In terms of visibility, the Senior Leadership Team are now all in coloured vests so that we are easily identifiable if you are passing through and need a quick check-in on anything.

I've attached some headline dates for the remainder of the term and families will have received notification of parent night appointments opening on Monday. Please let us know if you have any problems.

Wishing everyone a lovely weekend and I look forward to meeting more grown-ups in due course.
